Dear Girls & Boys,

Last year around this time, we had done a puzzle about Mothers. This year, I would like to do a puzzle about Fathers! I think you are all familiar with the lines of Psalter 278:1.

*"The tender love a father has,
For all his children dear,
Such love the Lord bestows on them
Who worship Him in fear."*

These lines show of a father's love for his children, and how the Lord also looks after His children. I hope you love your father, but also more importantly, that you may learn to know of a heavenly Father. That would be the greatest blessing!

Today's puzzle is the last puzzle for this season. Thank you for all your diligent work doing the puzzles. It is very nice to see you in the library when you choose your book. I hope you have enjoyed the puzzles, but above all, that the work you have done will be blessed to your hearts. The puzzle boxes will be out in the narthex until the end of May, so if you have any puzzles at home yet, you may still turn them in.

Children who have earned a book this week are: Anthony Knibbe, Rylan Knibbe, Abigail Spote, and Oliver VanLagen. I hope to see you in the library following the service this evening (May 12).

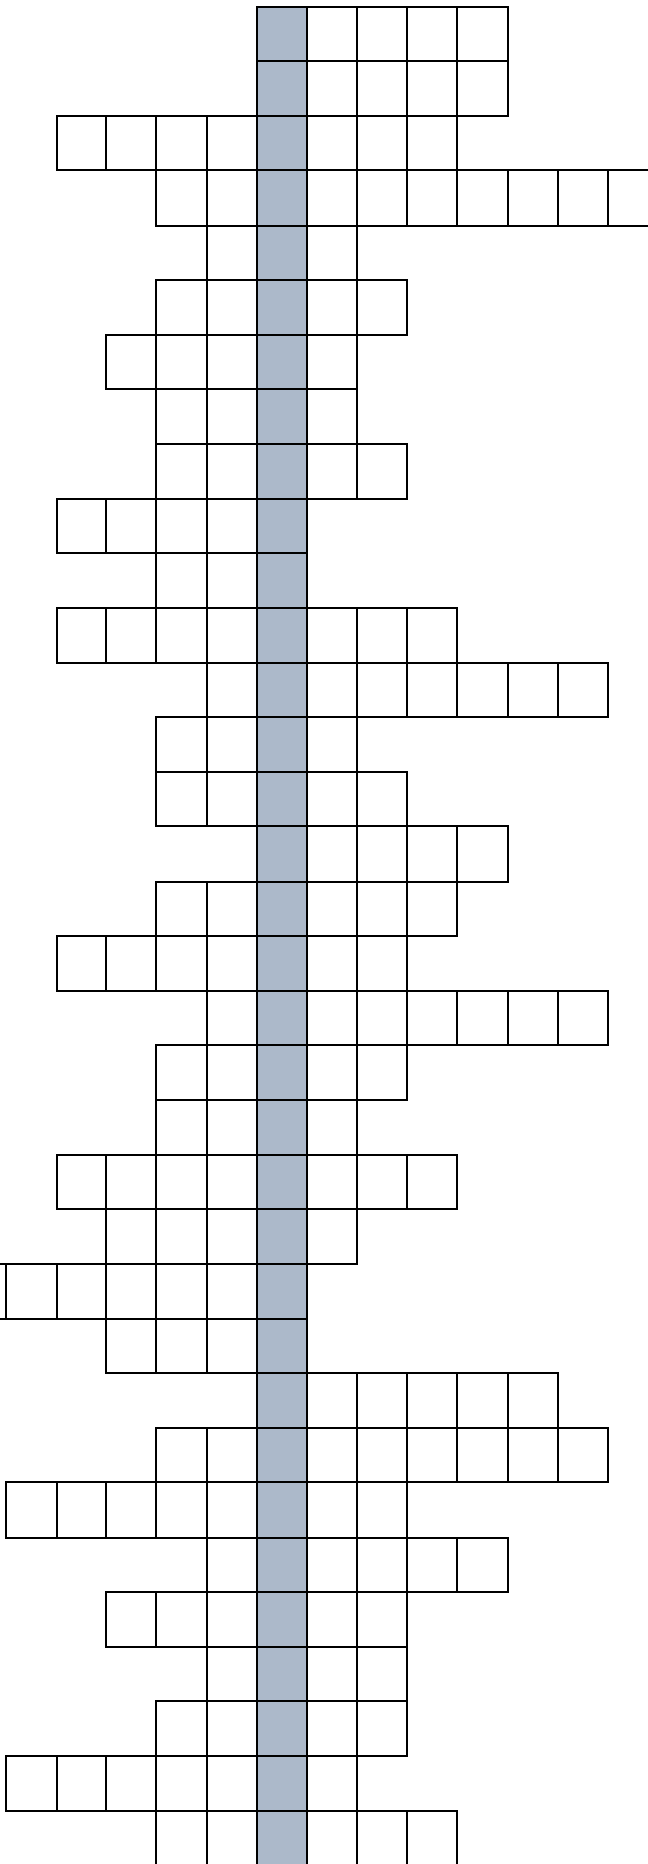

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today's Puzzle (10 points): Look up the texts on the back of the sheet and find the father that is being spoken of. When you are finished, write down what Psalter the middle column is from.
