Dear Girls & Boys,

I think that you are very familiar with running! You probably run outside for recess or run to the bus when it is time to go home. In the Bible, there are also examples of people who have run. Some of those people were running to do good things, and some were running for their own profit (think of Gehazi running after Naaman). When you complete your puzzle today, you will also find something else that is mentioned in the Bible as running. Maybe you will think about this the next time you are running! I hope you may have a safe and pleasant summer and that you will take time to read your Bible and pray for a new heart every day.

Children who have earned a book this week are Cayden Bleeker and Olivia Sporte. I hope to see you in the library following the evening service tonight (May 11). Today's puzzle will be the last one for this season. Thank you for all your diligent work doing the puzzles! It is a pleasure to see you in the library when you come to choose a book and I hope you enjoy the puzzles and your books as well. The puzzle boxes will be in the narthex until the end of May. After that, you can hold onto any completed puzzles until the new season starts in the Fall, if all is well.

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today's Puzzle (10 points): Look up the passages listed on the back of the sheet to find the names of people who were ran. When you are finished, find all the names in the word search box. The remaining letters, when placed in order, will spell out another text. Write down where you can find this text.
