Dear Girls & Boys,

Have you ever thought how often we use a door? You have a door to your room and to your house, a door to get on the bus, and a door to enter school and church. Maybe you were looking for your Grandpa or Grandma to come through your classroom door or for your friend when they were coming to visit you at home. The Bible also mentions many types of doors, mostly in buildings, but it also speaks about our mouth or lips as a door. The words that come out of the door of our mouth and lips can be kind or they can also be not so nice, and sometimes you can hurt someone by what you say. Our hearts are full of sin and we need to pray often to be kept from saying things that are wrong or sinful, but to also ask forgiveness for our sins.

Children who have earned a book this time are Anthony Knibbe, Abigail Spote, Melanie Spote, and Keegan Weeda. I hope to see you in the library following the service tonight (November 9).

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe
