

Name: _____ November 23, 2025

Dear Girls & Boys,

When you drive down the highway, you usually pass under some bridges. It happens sometimes, that you see bags, backpacks, or blankets lying under the bridge. Then you know that someone is “living” there, or using that space to sleep. Can you imagine what it would feel like to sleep under the bridge at night, in the winter? I think it would be very cold and hard compared to your soft, warm bed. Have you ever opened the refrigerator and found it empty? I am sure that sounds strange to you, as your refrigerator at home probably has plenty of food in it! I think you can understand what I am getting at. We have been given plenty and even more than we need, above many others in the world. How good the Lord is to us, even though we don’t deserve it!

Those who have earned a book this time are Arianna Klaasen and Karlie Sporte. I hope to see you in the library following the service tonight (November 23). I noticed that many of you answered the 3 questions on the Reformation Day puzzle even though it might have been a little challenging! Keep up the good work!

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today’s Puzzle (10 points): Your puzzle today is about much, enough and plenty. Look up the texts listed on the back of the sheet and fill the correct word in the crossword puzzle.

Bonus (1 point): Use the code box to figure out the text.
