

Name: _____ January 4, 2026

Dear Girls and Boys,

As we begin the first puzzle for the year 2026, I would like to wish you all a blessed New Year. It is common for people to give their best wishes to each other at the beginning of a New Year, but the greatest blessing would be if God would begin or increase His work in our hearts. I hope you may pray often for that.

When I was young, I remember seeing the common poster The Broad and Narrow Way, hanging on the wall at my Grandma's house. You could spend a lot of time looking at that poster! There are a lot of different people walking, and buildings they are stopping at or walking by. As you get older, you understand more of the picture, or you have heard your parents or the minister explain in it chapel. There is so much to learn from each part of the picture, but when you are finished looking at it, there is one question that remains. What way are we on? If you or I were drawn on the picture, where would they put us? Pray often that God would place you on the narrow way, that you may learn to know something of Him and His work in your heart. Then this year would be a special year!

Children who have earned a book this week are Harley Kamp, Landon Kamp, Jarett Kleyn, Evanny Knibbe, and Sadie Van Lagen. I hope to see you in the library following the service this evening (January 4).

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today's Puzzle (10 points): Your puzzle today is about many different "ways". Look up each Bible passage and fill in the 'way' that is spoken of in each text. Some texts mention more than one 'way', but only one word will fit. When you have completed all the words, the center column will spell out part of another text.

Bonus (1 point): Color the text below (about what Jesus said about Himself) to receive one bonus point.

“I AM THE WAY,
THE TRUTH AND
THE LIFE...”

The center column can be found in Jeremiah 21: _____

A sweet little girl named Sarah went home one day from the services of God's house, full of what she had seen and heard. Sitting at the table with the family, she asked her father, who was a very wicked man, whether he ever prayed. He did not like the question, and in a very angry manner replied, "Is it your mother or your aunt that has put you up to that, my little girl?"

"No, father," said the little creature, "the preacher said, all good people really pray; and those who don't pray ain't going to heaven. Father, do you pray?" This was more than her father could stand, and in a rough way he said, "Well, you and your mother and your aunt may go your way, and I will go mine."

"Father," said the little girl, with sweet simplicity, "Which way are you going?" This question the Holy Spirit caused to enter his heart; he saw he was in the way which leads to eternal death, and began to cry for mercy to Him who has said, "Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out."
