

Name: _____ May 3, 2026

Dear Girls & Boys,

This week, if all is well, we hope to come together for a church service on the National Day of Prayer. Each and every day we can see God's protecting hand over us and our nation. In the last two years, time and again it is clear how our President has also been spared by God. It should humble us that God still has mercy for us as an undeserving people. May we be given true prayer of confession in our hearts for our many sins.

Children who have earned a book this week are Elaina Knibbe and Karsten Weeda. I hope to see you in the library following the service this evening (May 3). Next week will be our last puzzle for the season, so if you have any unfinished puzzles at home be sure to hand them in to get your points!

Sincerely, Mrs. Jackie Knibbe

Today's Puzzle (10 points): Look up the texts listed on the back of the sheet and fill in the name or title of the people in whose lives we see God's protecting and guiding hand. The middle column will spell out another text. Write down where you can find this text.

Bonus (1 point): Use the code box below to fill in the blanks. When you are finished, write down where this text is found.
